ALEJANDRO SCHTULMANN

President & Head of Research
Emerging Markets Political Risk Analysis
EMPRA, S.C.

Alejandro Schtulmann is a founding partner and the president of Emerging Markets Political Risk Analysis (EMPRA), a political risk advisory and consulting firm focused primarily on Mexico. He is also the CEO of Advanced Intelligence Solutions (AIS), a firm dedicated to business continuity, protective intelligence and software development. He has more than 20 years experience in political risk consulting, with specific expertise in Mexican politics, energy policy, and public security dynamics. He is a frequent contributor to major newswires, leading world newspapers, and a regular speaker on Mexican politics and security.

Mr. Schtulmann has a B.A. in International Trade and Business from the Instituto Tecnologico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (ITESM). He earned a M.Sc. in Economic Development from the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) of the University of London and a MIA in International Political Economy from the School of International and Public Affairs (SIPA) at Columbia University. He has executive diplomas in Counter-Terrorism Studies from the Lauder School of Government at the Inter-Disciplinary Center in Hertzliya, Israel (2011), and in National and International Security from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government (2017).